

Alliance for Multicultural Community Services invites you to a special viewing of Welcome to Shelbyville.

Please join us for a free viewing and panel discussion on

Wednesday, June 29th, 2011

6:30 pm

Location: Té House of Tea

1927 Fairview,

Houston, Texas 77079

Students recite the Pledge of Allegiance during ESL class.
(Photo by: Greg Poschman)

“Welcome to Shelbyville is a rare, inside look at America at a crossroads... Shelbyville’s longtime African American and white residents are challenged with how best to integrate with a burgeoning Latino population and the more recent arrival of hundreds of Somali refugees of Muslim faith. Set on the eve of the 2008 Presidential election, the film captures the interaction between Shelbyville’s old and new residents as they search for a way to live together...”

(For more on this article visit <http://www.itvs.org/films/welcome-to-shelbyville/photos-and-press-kit>)

Donations welcome!

Alliance for Multicultural
Community Services
a United Way Agency

The Alliance for Multicultural Community Services is a community based, United Way Agency, that provides comprehensive services to aid refugees, immigrants, and low-income residents of Houston, Texas in becoming self-sufficient and improving their quality of life.

For more information visit us at www.allianceontheweb.org or call us at 713.776.4700 or email mimami@allianceontheweb.org